Shri V. Sharma, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Akhil Agrawal, Panel Lawyer for the State.

The petitioner's main grievance is that he has not been paid General Provident Fund as is admissible to him.

The case of the petitioner is that he was entitled to received Rs.1,26,465/- whereas he has been paid only Rs.66,663/-.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner may be allowed to make a representation to respondent No.2 raising all his grievances and respondent No.2 be directed to decide his representation, to which learned counsel for the respondent has no objection.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner is allowed to make a representation within a period of ten days from today to respondent No.2 raising all his grievances and in turn respondent No.2 is directed to decide the representation of the petitioner in accordance with law within another two months from the date of receipt of representation after considering all the grievances raised by the petitioner.

With the direction aforesaid, this petition stands disposed of.

I.A. No.2650/05 also stands disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules.
